I.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Mr. Ramos has been indicted with seven counts of violations of Title 8, United States Code, Sections 1324(a)(1)(A)(iv) and (v)(II), Title 42, United States Code, Section 408(a)(7)(B), and Title 18, United States Code, Section 1028(a)(7) and (b)(2)(B). He has pleaded not guilty to all counts.

II.

THIS COURT SHOULD COMPEL DISCOVERY

Mr. Ramos-Galdamez moves for the production by the government of the following discovery. This request is not limited to those items about which the prosecutor knows, but includes all discovery listed below that is in the custody, control, care, or knowledge of any government agency. See generally Kyles v. Whitley, 514 U.S. 419 (1995); United States v. Bryan, 868 F.2d 1032 (9th Cir. 1989). To date, the defendant has not received the discovery necessary to file complete motions in this case.

1           1.     Arrest Reports, Notes and Dispatch Tapes. The defense specifically requests that all
 2 arrest reports, notes and dispatch or any other tapes that relate to the circumstances surrounding his arrest
 3 or any questioning, if such reports have not already been produced in their entirety, be turned over to him.
 4 This request includes, but is not limited to, any rough notes, records, reports, transcripts or other documents
 5 in which statements of the defendant or any other discoverable material is contained. This is all discoverable
 6 under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A) and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). See also Loux v.
 7 United States, 389 F.2d 911 (9th Cir. 1968). Arrest reports, investigator's notes, memos from arresting
 8 officers, dispatch tapes, sworn statements, and prosecution reports pertaining to the defendant are available
 9 under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B) and (c), Fed. R. Crim. P. 26.2 and 12(i). Preservation of rough notes is 10 requested, whether or not the government deems them discoverable.

11           2.     Brady Material. The defendant requests all documents, statements, agents' reports, and 12 tangible evidence favorable to the defendant on the issue of guilt and/or which affects the credibility of the 13 government's case. Impeachment and exculpatory evidence both fall within Brady's definition of evidence 14 favorable to the accused. United States v. Bagley, 473 U.S. 667 (1985); United States v. Agurs, 427 U.S.
 15 97 (1976).

16           3.     Any Information That May Result in a Lower Sentence. As discussed above, any 17 information which may result in a more favorable sentence must also be disclosed pursuant to Brady v.
 18 Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). The Government must disclose any cooperation or attempted cooperation
 19 by the defendant, as well as any information that could affect any base offense level or specific offense
 20 characteristic under Chapter Two of the advisory United States Sentencing Guidelines. Also included in 21 this request is any information relevant to a Chapter Three adjustment, a determination of the defendant's
 22 criminal history, or any other application of the 18 U.S.C. §3553 or the Sentencing Guidelines.

23           5.     The Defendant's Prior Record. Evidence of a prior record is available under Fed. R. Crim.
 24 P. 16(a)(1)(B). Counsel specifically requests a complete copy of any criminal record not already produced.

25           6.     Any Proposed 404(b) Evidence. Evidence of prior similar acts is discoverable under Fed.
 26 R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(c) and Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) and 609. In addition, under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b), "upon 27 request of the accused, the prosecution . . . shall provide reasonable notice in advance of trial . . . of the 28 general nature . . . ." of any evidence the government proposes to introduce under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) at

1 trial. Sufficient notice requires the government to "articulate precisely the evidential hypothesis by which
2 a fact of consequence may be inferred from the other acts evidence." United States v. Mehrmanesh, 689 F.2d
3 822, 830 (9th Cir. 1982) (emphasis added; internal citations omitted); see also United States v. Brooke, 4
4 F.3d 1480, 1483 (9th Cir. 1993) (reaffirming Mehrmanesh and reversing convictions). The defendant
5 requests that such notice be given at least three weeks before trial to give the defense time to adequately
6 investigate and prepare for trial.

7 7. Evidence Seized. Physical evidence seized as a result of any search, either warrantless or 8 with a warrant, is discoverable under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E). This includes the computers that were 9 seized from Mr. Ramos.

10 8. Henthorn Material. The defendant requests that the Assistant United States Attorney
11 ("AUSA") assigned to this case oversee (not personally conduct) a review of all personnel files of each agent
12 involved in the present case for impeachment material. See Kyles v. Whitley, 514 U.S. 437, 438 (1995)
13 (holding that "the individual prosecutor has a duty to learn of any favorable evidence known to the others
14 acting on the government's behalf in the case, including the police"); United States v. Henthorn, 931 F.2d 15 29 (9th Cir. 1991). This request includes, but is not limited to, any complaints filed (by a member of the 16 public, by another agent, or any other person) against the agent, whether or not the investigating authority
17 has taken any action, as well as any matter for which a disciplinary review was undertaken, whether or not 18 any disciplinary action was ultimately recommended. The defendant further requests production of 19 any such information at least one week prior to the motion hearing and two weeks prior to trial. If the 20 prosecutor is uncertain whether certain information should be disclosed pursuant to this request, this
21 information should be produced to the Court in advance of the motion hearing and the trial for an in camera
22 inspection.

23 9. Tangible Objects. The defendant requests the opportunity to inspect, copy, and test, as 24 necessary, all other documents and tangible objects, including photographs, books, papers, documents,
25 fingerprint analyses, vehicles, or copies of portions thereof, which are material to the defense or intended
26 for use in the government's case-in-chief or were obtained from or belong to the defendant. Fed. R. Crim.
27 P. 16(a)(1)(E).

28 ///

1       10.     Expert Witnesses. The defendant requests the name, qualifications, and a written summary
 2 of the testimony of any person that the government intends to call as an expert witness during its case in
 3 chief. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(G). This summary should include a description of the witness' opinion(s),
 4 as well as the bases and the reasons for the opinion(s). See United States v. Duvall, 272 F.3d 825 (7th Cir.
 5 2001) (finding that government's written expert notice did not adequately summarize or describe police
 6 detective's testimony in drug prosecution where notice provided only a list of the general subject matters to
 7 be covered and failed to identify what opinion the expert would offer on those subjects). This request
 8 includes, but is not limited to, disclosure of the qualifications of any government witness who will testify
 9 that he understands and/or speaks Spanish or any other foreign language that may have been used during the 10 course of an interview with the defendant or any other witness. The defense requests the notice of expert
 11 testimony be provided at least two weeks prior to trial so that the defense can properly prepare to address
 12 and respond to this testimony, including obtaining its own expert and/or investigating the opinions,
 13 credentials of the government's expert and obtain a hearing in advance of trial to determine the 14 admissibility of qualifications of any expert. See Kumho v. Carmichael Tire Co., 526 U.S. 137, 119 S.Ct.
 15 1167, 1176 (1999) (trial judge is "gatekeeper" and must determine, reliability and relevancy of expert 16 testimony and such determinations may require "special briefing or other proceedings").

17       11.     Impeachment evidence. The defendant requests any evidence that any prospective
 18 government witness has engaged in any criminal act whether or not resulting in a conviction and whether 19 any witness has made a statement favorable to the defendant. See Fed. R. Evid. 608, 609 and 613. Such 20 evidence is discoverable under Brady v. Maryland, supra. See United States v. Strifler, 851 F.2d 1197 (9th
 21 Cir. 1988) (witness' prior record); Thomas v. United States, 343 F.2d 49 (9th Cir. 1965) (evidence that 22 detracts from a witness' credibility). Included in this request is disclosure of any immigration file of or 23 pertaining to the material witness. Immigration files reveal a witness's past history of immigration offenses,
 24 which not only impeaches the witness, but it shows that they have a pattern of illegal entry and contacts with 25 other alien smugglers. Inter alia, defense counsel requests any information on the confidential
 26 informants from this case, at least one of which was arrested for alien smuggling.

27       12.     Evidence of Criminal Investigation of Any Government Witness. The defense
 28 requests any evidence that any prospective witness is under investigation by federal, state or local authorities for any criminal conduct. United States v. Chitty, 760 F.2d 425 (2d Cir. 1985). Again, this includes the information relating to the confidential informants in this case.

13. Evidence of Bias or Motive to Lie. The defense requests any evidence that and prospective government witness is biased or prejudiced against the defendant, or has a motive to falsify or distort his or her testimony. Pennsylvania v. Ritchie, 480 U.S. 39 (1987); United States v. Strifler, 851 F.2d 1197 (9th Cir. 1988).

14. Evidence Affecting Perception, Recollection, Ability to Communicate, or Veracity. The defendant requests any evidence, including any medical or psychiatric report or evaluation, tending to show that any prospective witness' ability to perceive, remember, communicate, or tell the truth is impaired; and any evidence that a witness has ever used narcotics or other controlled substance, or has ever been an alcoholic. United States v. Strifler, 851 F.2d 1197 (9th Cir. 1988); Chavis v. North Carolina, 637 F.2d 213, 224 (4th Cir. 1980).

15. Witness Addresses. The defense requests the name and last known address of each prospective government witness. See United States v. Napue, 834 F.2d 1311 (7th Cir. 1987); United States v. Tucker, 716 F.2d 576 (9th Cir. 1983) (failure to interview government witnesses by counsel is ineffective); United States v. Cook, 608 F.2d 1175, 1181 (9th Cir. 1979) (defense has equal right to talk to witnesses). The defendant also requests the name and last known address of every witness to the crime or crimes charged (or any of the overt acts committed in furtherance thereof) who will not be called as a government witness. United States v. Cadet, 727 F.2d 1453 (9th Cir. 1984).

16. Name of Witnesses Favorable to the Defendant. The defendant requests the name of any witness who made any arguably favorable statement concerning the defendant or who could not identify him or who was unsure of his identity, or participation in the crime charged. Jackson v. Wainwright, 390 F.2d 288 (5th Cir. 1968); Chavis v. North Carolina, 637 F.2d 213, 223 (4th Cir. 1980); Jones v. Jago, 575 F.2d 1164, 1168 (6th Cir. 1978); Hudson v. Blackburn, 601 F.2d 785 (5th Cir. 1979), cert. denied, 444 U.S. 1086 (1980).

17. Statements Relevant to the Defense. The defendant requests disclosure of any statement that may be "relevant to any possible defense or contention" that he might assert. United States v. Bailleaux, 685 F.2d 1105 (9th Cir. 1982). This includes Grand Jury transcripts which are relevant to the case, including any agents or other witnesses who may have testified before a Grand Jury.

18. Jencks Act Material. The defendant requests production in advance of the motion hearing or trial of all material, including dispatch tapes, which the government must produce pursuant to the Jencks Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3500 and Fed. R. Crim. P. 26.2. A verbal acknowledgment that "rough" notes constitute an accurate account of the witness' interview is sufficient for the report or notes to qualify as a statement under section 3500(e)(1). Campbell v. United States, 373 U.S. 487, 490-92 (1963); see also United States v. Boshell, 952 F.2d 1101 (9th Cir. 1991) (holding that interview notes constitutes Jencks material when an agent reviews notes with the subject of the interview); see also United States v. Riley, 189 F.3d 802, 806-808 (9th Cir. 1999). Advance production will avoid the possibility of delay of the motion hearing or trial to allow the defendant to investigate the Jencks material. Defendant requests pre-trial disclosure of such statements to avoid unnecessary recesses and delays and to allow defense counsel to prepare for, and use properly any Jencks statements during cross-examination.

19. Giglio Information. Pursuant to Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972), the defendant requests all statements and/or promises, expressed or implied, made to any government witnesses, in exchange for their testimony in this case, and all other information which could arguably be used for the impeachment of any government witnesses.

20. Agreements Between the Government and Witnesses. The defendant requests discovery regarding any express or implicit promise, understanding, offer of immunity, of past, present, or future compensation, or any other kind of agreement or understanding, including any implicit understanding relating to criminal or civil income tax, forfeiture or fine liability, between any prospective government witness and the government (federal, state and/or local). This request also includes any discussion with a potential witness about or advice concerning any immigration benefits, any contemplated prosecution, or any possible plea bargain, even if no bargain was made or the advice not followed. Inter alia, defense counsel requests any information on the confidential informants in this case.

21. Informants and Cooperating Witnesses. The defendant requests disclosure of the names and addresses of all informants or cooperating witnesses used or to be used in this case, and in particular, disclosure of any informant who was a percipient witness in this case or otherwise participated in the crime charged against the defendant. The government must disclose the informant's identity and location, as well as disclose the existence of any other percipient witness unknown or unknowable to the defense. Roviaro v. United States, 353 U.S. 52, 61-62 (1957). The government must disclose any information derived from informants which exculpates or tends to exculpate the defendant.

22. Bias by Informants or Cooperating Witnesses. The defendant requests disclosure of any information indicating bias on the part of any informant or cooperating witness. Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972). Such information would include what, if any, inducements, favors, payments or threats were made to the witness to secure cooperation with the authorities.

23. Personnel Records of Government Officers Involved in the Arrest. Defendant requests all citizen complaints and other related internal affairs documents involving any of the immigration officers or other law enforcement officers who were involved in the investigation, arrest and interrogation of Defendant. See Pitchess v. Superior Court, 11 Cal. 3d 531, 539 (1974). Because of the sensitive nature of these documents, defense counsel will be unable to procure them from any other source. If the prosecutor is uncertain whether certain information should be disclosed pursuant to this request, this information should be produced to the Court in advance of the motion hearing and the trial for an in camera inspection.

24. Training of Relevant Law Enforcement Officers. Defendant requests copies of all written, videotaped or otherwise recorded policies or training instructions or manuals issued by all law enforcement agencies involved in the case (United States Customs Service, Border Patrol, INS, Homeland Security, etc.) to their employees regarding: (a) the handling of vehicles suspected to be transporting people across the port of entry; (b) the referral to secondary inspection of persons within those vehicles; (c) the detention of individuals within those vehicles; (d) the search of those vehicles and the occupants of those vehicles, including the proper means of obtaining consent to search and what constitutes consent to search; (e) the informing of suspects of their Constitutional rights; (f) the questioning of suspects and material witnesses. Defendant also requests all written or otherwise attainable information regarding the training of Customs agents in Ocotillo, California to detect or discover narcotics and/or people in houses in the area, including any training offered to Border Patrol, INS, or officers of Homeland Security Department, by the DEA, or other law enforcement agencies or individuals.

25. Performance Goals and Policy Awards. Defendant requests disclosure of information regarding standards used for measuring, compensating or reprimanding the conduct of all law enforcement

1 officers involved in the case (Customs, Border Patrol, INS, etc.) to the extent such information relates to the 2 detection of contraband and/or aliens. This request specifically includes information concerning
3 performance goals, policy awards, and the standards used by Customs for commending, demoting, or 4 promoting agents for their performance at the port of entry or in their investigations and their success or 5 failure to detect illegal narcotics and/or people in general.

6 26. Opportunity to View and Photograph the Evidence Seized. Defendant hereby 7 requests an opportunity to view and photograph any evidence allegedly confiscated in this case.

8 27. Residual Request. The defense intends by this discovery motion to invoke his rights to 9 discovery to the fullest extent possible under the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and the Constitution
10 and laws of the United States. This request specifically includes all subsections of Rule 16. The defendant
11 requests that the government provide him and his attorney with the above requested material sufficiently in 12 advance of trial.

13 V.

14 MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE ADDITIONAL MOTIONS

15 Defense counsel has received insufficient discovery in this case. Moreover, the discovery in this case
16 is voluminous and defense counsel requests ample time to review it once received. As information comes 17 to light, due to the government providing additional discovery in response to these motions or an order of 18 this Court, the defense will most likely find it necessary to file further motions. It is, therefore, requested 19 that defense counsel be allowed the opportunity to file further motions based upon information gained 20 through the discovery process.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Mr. Ramos-Galdamez respectfully requests that this Court grant these motions.
